

Every Partner a Leading Lawyer

Providing Optimal Results for Clients During Challenging Times

Extraordinary legal acumen and attention to every client's unique needs has earned Berger Schatz the reputation of being the firm to entrust with the most sensitive family matters and most complicated financial issues. As one of the largest and most renowned matrimonial and family law firms in the nation, we excel in every aspect of our practice, including child custody, visitation, paternity, division of substantial assets, financial tracing, business valuations, tax issues, and the negotiation and drafting of premarital, postnuptial and settlement agreements.

The successful resolution of our clients' conflicts requires a balance of negotiation and litigation skills. We make every effort to resolve disputes out of court through effective negotiation; however, when litigation is necessary, our attorneys' skills at the trial and appellate levels are unmatched.

Our accomplished attorneys include fellows and past and present board members of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers; a past member of the Executive Committee of the national AAML, a past President of the Illinois Chapter of the AAML, a past Chairman of the Illinois State Bar Association Family Law Section Council; and a past President of the Lake County Bar Association, as well as the largest number of Women Leading Lawyers in the state. Our partners and associates are respected authors and speakers on family law issues throughout the country. We are consistently awarded Martindale-Hubbell's highest "AV" rating for legal acumen and ethics and are included in the Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers.

Our strong record of excellent client service and precedent-setting successes has earned Berger Schatz the trust of colleagues, clients, and their families and friends for over two decades.

We congratulate our 2009 Leading Lawyers: Jason G. Adess, Michael J. Berger, Mary J. Clark, Andrew D. Eichner, Leon I. Finkel, David P. Kirsh, Marcelle R. Kott, Debbie K. Lerner, David H. Levy, Sharon S. Mobley, Zora Ristanovic, Michael S. Sabath, Barry A. Schatz, Dina Warner, and Tracey A. Wertman.
